

BUSINESS PERSON of the YEAR AWARD

Sponsored by TAU CAPITAL CORP.

2007 Nomination Form

The Award

Real life success stories serve as motivation for us all.

The annual Canada – South Africa Chamber of Business Person of the Year Award Sponsored by Tau Capital Corp. will recognize and honour an individual resident in Canada, who has contributed significantly to business development between Canada and South Africa.

The Successful Candidate

The successful candidate will be engaged in trade or investment between the two countries; is seen to be actively supporting the broad objectives of South Africa's economic transformation and is an advocate for business development between the two countries.

Nominations

Nominations will be screened and ranked by a Chamber committee chaired by Darryl Levitt. Following this ranking a winner will be selected by the Canada – South Africa Chamber of Business.

The deadline for nominations is June 12, 2007.

The winner of the Second Annual Award will be announced at the Chamber's Annual Gala Indaba on October 17, 2007.

In addition, in the joint name of the Tau Capital Corp. and the Chamber, an annual contribution will be made in the amount of $2,500 to the University of Cape Town Foundation for a student scholarship.

The broad categories under which the nominees will be evaluated are the following:

Part 1: Nature of the business being transacted between the two countries.

Please describe the business being conducted between Canada and South Africa by the nominee. This could involve importing, exporting, investments, joint ventures, technology transfers and innovative projects. Factors to be considered might include the nature of the business, markets being served and growth rate and how long the nominee has been doing business in South Africa or Canada, as the case may be.

Part 2: Socio-Economic Impact.

Does the individual and business activity with South Africa support the objectives of transforming South African society as a whole? This includes the promotion of historically disadvantaged individuals (black economic empowerment, promotion of women), capacity building, skills and training development, community development (physical infrastructure), health improvement, etc.

Part 3: An Advocate for Business.

Is the nominee a positive role model for business interaction between Canada and South Africa? For example is the nominee supportive of initiatives by governments, non-government associations and trade associations and other businesses to further strengthen economic relations and interactions between Canada and South and Southern Africa.

Considerations.

The nominee must be a Canadian resident. Business activity is not limited to only Canada and South Africa but could also include sub-Saharan Africa. Please feel free to expand or provide additional information or supporting documents as attachments to the nomination form.
